Quantity: 201 linear feet (105 linear feet open for research), 241 containers

Identification:

Accession Number: 80-1

Archival Research Catalog (ARC) Identification Number: 583501

Scope and Content:

The files consist of letters, memorandums, briefings, strategies, invitation lists, position papers, notes, speeches, news clippings, itineraries, newsletters, pamphlets, schedules, legal documents, telephone logs, and publications.

These records document Anne Wexler's duties as Special Assistant for Public Outreach including getting the public involved in the development of Presidential priority issues, drafting legislation for those priority issues, and the development of strategy to get the issues before the Congress.

Creator Information: Office of the Assistant for Public Outreach

The Office of the Assistant for Public Outreach is responsible for communicating and interacting with various interest groups. The office listened to public interest groups concerns and communicated them to the President or the appropriate agency. They also explained to these groups, the administration's positions and programs and pursued a media outreach effort to make the public aware that there were people in the White House ready and eager to listen to their views.

Biographical information on key office personnel is located at the end of the finding aid.

Return to Series ListRobert L. Maddox's Religious Liaison Files

Scope and Content: Containers 98-110. This series was opened in 2005. This series includes correspondence, memos and reports dealing with individuals and groups concerned with religious activity. Much of the material deals with subjects that are not explicitly religious, such as energy, foreign relations, or education, but which were still of interest to religious groups. An important portion of the material deals with the Carter administration's attempts to win the support of religious groups and leaders in the 1980 presidential election. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Office of Anne Wexler, Special Assistant to the President - Biographical Data

Anne Wexler was Assistant to the President of the United States. Appointed to the White House Senior Staff by President Carter on May 1, 1978, she was responsible for developing and administering efforts to support and carry out Presidential priorities including the involvement of interested groups and individuals in the making and implementation of policy.

Prior to her appointment, she had served as Deputy Under Secretary of Commerce since January 1977. At the Commerce Department she was responsible for the coordination of the Department's programs and field operations, and also acted as Special Assistant to the Secretary for Regional Economic Coordination and as Chairperson of the President's Task Force on Women Business Owners.

Before joining the Commerce Department, Wexler was Associate Publisher of Rolling Stone magazine, supervising the circulation, subscription, promotion and production functions of the publication. She was also responsible for research on new acquisitions and corporate diversification, and directed magazine syndication operations.

During the 1976 Presidential campaign, Wexler was active in number of capacities, as a member of the Carter/Mondale campaign's National Steering Committee, the Democratic National Committee Campaign Committee, and the National Committee's Voters Registration Task Force, as floor leader for Jimmy Carter at the Democratic National Convention; and as his representative in the 1976 Democratic Rules Committee. She also served on the National Committee's Education and Training Council.

She was a member of the Charter Commission of the Democratic National Committee in 1974-75, and of the Democratic Campaign Committee for the 1974 elections. She was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1968 and 1972, a member of Convention Rules Committee those two years, and a floor leader in 1972. She was chief consultant to the Commission on Party Structure and Delegate Selection from 1969 to 1972, on Connecticut's Democratic State Committee on Election Law Reform in Connecticut in 1969, and on the National Municipal League Policy Committee's Elections Systems Project in 1971.

In 1970, Ms. Wexler served as Director of the Voting Rights Project for Common Cause. In 1973, she was Fellow of the Institute of Politics, John F. Kennedy School of Government, and Harvard University.

Ms. Wexler served on the Westport, Connecticut, Zoning Board of Appeals from 1966 through 1971, and in 1967 was also on the Board of Directors of the Connecticut Mental Health Association.

Born in New York City on February 10, 1930, she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Skidmore College in 1950. In 1972, she received the Outstanding Alumna Award from Skidmore.

Ms. Wexler is married to Joseph D. Duffey, Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities. They have four sons: David and Daniel Wexler, Michael and David Duffey.

Robert Lee (Bob) Maddox was born April 14, 1937. He obtained a B.A. degree from Baylor University, Texas, in 1959 and a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1963. He then obtained a Doctorate in Sacred Theology from the Candler School of Theology of Emory University, Atlanta, in 1975. After pastorates at various Baptist churches in Texas, Florida and Georgia, he joined the Carter White House staff in May 1979 as Special Assistant for Religious Liaison. This was part of the Office of Public Liaison, headed by Anne Wexler. He had been a speech consultant for the White House previously, and wrote the draft for the Mid-East Peace Treaty signing. After leaving the Carter White House at the end of the administration, he returned to his ministry in Calhoun, Georgia.

Jane Hartley graduated from Boston College (Newton College) with a B.A. in Political Science and Economics. Ms. Hartley worked in the White House as Deputy Assistant to President Carter, under Anne Wexler, in the Office of Public Liaison. She also served as Director of Congressional Relations at the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Michael H. Channin served as Deputy Assistant to Anne Wexler, Assistant to the President, from May, 1978-1981. Previously, Mr. Channin was Deputy Director of the Office of Regional Affairs and Program Coordination of the Dept. of Commerce. He was appointed in 1977 by Secretary of Commerce, Juanita M. Kreps.

Before joining the Commerce Department, he was an attorney with the law firm of Powell, Goldstein, Frazer and Murphy in Atlanta, Georgia. Previously, he was Director of the Southern Center for Studies in Public Policy, Clark College, Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. Channin graduated in 1968 from Emory University Law School and in 1965 from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Jane Wales is a graduate of Sarah Lawrence College. She is former Deputy Assistant Secretary of State and served in the White House as Coordinator of Public Liaison from 1977-79.

Before joining the Carter Administration, she was a writer at "Congressional Quarterly" and was Managing Editor of the "Democratic Review" magazine. From 1982-87, Ms. Wales was National Executive Director of Physicians for Social Responsibility, the U.S. affiliate of the International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War, winner of the 1985 Nobel Peace Prize.

In 1987 and 1988, Ms. Wales directed the International Security Options Project, which developed recommendations for U.S. nuclear weapons policy, under the guidance of Gerard Smith, George Kennan, Robert McNamara and others. As part of that affiliation, Ms. Wales assisted Mr. McNamara in the research and organization of Out of the Cold (Simon & Shuster

Heather Champion graduated cum laude from Mount Holyoke College. She first served as an intern in the Carter White House from January to June 1978 in the Speechwriting Office, where she worked for James Fallows. She then continued her work in the Carter White House as a staff member in the Office of Public Liaison working for Anne Wexler from August 1979 to January 1981. Between 1981 and 1998, Ms. Campion held numerous positions at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government, helping to build the School's Center for Business and Government, and serving as director of the Public Liaison office. From 1990 to 1998 she was director of the John F. Kennedy Jr. Forum, and associate director of the Institute of Politics.
